

1 IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
2 FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

4 ASUSTEK COMPUTER INC. AND ASUS
COMPUTER INTERNATIONAL,

No. C 13-5882 CW
SCHEDULING ORDER

5 Plaintiffs,

6 v.

7 SILICON INTEGRATED SYSTEMS CORP.,

8 Defendant.

10 On December 19, 2013 the Court denied without prejudice
11 Defendant Silicon Integrated Systems Corporation's motion to 12 dismiss Plaintiffs' amended complaint. The Court found that
13 service had been properly effected and ordered a sixty-day period
14 in which Plaintiff could take limited jurisdictional discovery.
15 The Court further ordered that Plaintiff had one week following
16 the expiration of that sixty-day period to serve a second amended
17 complaint.

19 On March 6, 2014, the parties filed a stipulation seeking to 20 stay this action pending the resolution of U.S. Ethernet
21 Innovations, LLC v. Acer, Inc. et al, N.D. Cal. Case No. 10-3724
22 (USEI). The parties proposed that following the resolution of 23 USEI, Plaintiff would have thirty days to complete the limited
24 jurisdictional discovery previously ordered by the Court. The 25 Court granted the stipulation on March 7, 2014.

26
27 On December 1, 2014, the Clerk of the Court entered judgment in USEI. Since that time, the parties have not made any filings
28 in the above-captioned case. The Court hereby orders the parties

1 to complete the previously ordered limited jurisdictional
2 discovery within thirty days of the date of this order. Plaintiff
3 shall have one week following the expiration of the thirty-day
4 period to file an amended complaint.

5 IT IS SO ORDERED.
